

STATE NATIONAL OFFICERS REPORT

Each state organization issued a charter by the YRNF is granted representational privileges on the National Committee. These privileges are granted to the State National Officers, the State Chief Executive Officer, the National Committeeman, and the National Committeewoman, who are to be elected at a convention of the state organization—or if a vacancy, filled in the manner prescribed by the state organization’s governing documents.

Please fill out the requested information and send, along with copies of appropriate documentation (i.e. relevant portion of state organization’s governing documents, minutes, letters of resignation, etc.), to the YRNF Secretary.
